

Key Texts

Genesis 29:31-35

“When the Lord saw that Leah was not loved, He enabled her to conceive, but Rachel remained childless. Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Reuben, for she said, It is because the Lord has seen my misery. Surely my husband will love me now. She conceived again, and when she gave birth to a son she said, Because the Lord heard that I am not loved, He gave me this one too. So she named him Simeon. Again she conceived, and when she gave birth to a son she said, Now at last my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons. So he was named Levi. She conceived again, and when she gave birth to a son she said, This time I will praise the Lord. So she named him Judah. Then she stopped having children.”

Matthew 6:22-23

“The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are healthy, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eyes are unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness.”

1

When you've been accepted by Jesus, presented blameless before the Father, filled with His Holy Spirit, it will be the only validation and permission you need to be fruitful and multiply.

2

When you allow the way things look to speak louder than the way things are, you'll end up attaching false identities and untrue realities to the things and people around you.

3

The church is where the purpose of God comes to live and the plans of the enemy come to die.

Key Questions

- Am I seeking validation and approval from anyone or anything other than Jesus?
- Am I allowing a distorted reality or a false identity to effect my destiny?
- How can I see myself the way God sees me this week?
